PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Revenue-driven partnerships and business development professional with a proven record of winning brand deals and building recurring revenue from scratch. Converts roughly half of sponsor and partnership pitches into signed activations, and scaled a 6-year independent coaching business to $576K in lifetime revenue - generating $390K+ in the last 3 years alone while maintaining a steady $130K+ annual run rate. Achieved a 40% discovery-call close rate and roughly 50% long-term client retention. Built and executed a multi-brand partnership portfolio for Run the Blocks, turning a grassroots run club into a recognized activation partner for national brands. Background spans corporate partnerships (LAFC) to grassroots founder-led sales.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

We Go Healthy Co.

Founder & Head Performance Coach

2020 - Present

- Founded and built We Go Healthy, an online and in-person strength and performance coaching business delivering personalized training programs, nutrition-informed guidance, and race-specific programming for everyday athletes and endurance runners
- Grown and sustained the business for six-plus years, building $130K+ in annual revenue while honing marketing, sales, business development, and customer retention skills, all without outside investment
- Built and manage a custom client platform on Trainerize housing the complete library of performance-based training programming, informed by knowledge accumulated through collaboration with clinics including Dang Physical Therapy and Mamba Sports Academy, plus in-person coaching space secured at Movement Society in DTLA
- Ran a consultative sales process for premium coaching offerings, achieving a 40% discovery-call-to-close conversion rate on new client acquisition
- Retained roughly 50% of clients long-term beyond their first few months, across a 30+ concurrent client roster, the sustained retention behind the business's multi-year revenue
- Built and ran the organic brand and content strategy for @coach.halliejose (Instagram and TikTok) alongside full-funnel Meta ad campaigns and a newly launched affiliate/influencer program that together drove a 20% lift in paid program conversions

Run the Blocks

Founder & Head Partnerships Lead

2024 - Present

- Founded and built Run the Blocks, an Arts District run and strength community offering weekly group runs, strength classes, hybrid training sessions, and brand partnership programming

- Manage a multi-account partner territory across the LA market (7+ brand and venue partners), cultivating key decision-maker relationships from first outreach through signed, recurring deals
- Converted roughly half of all sponsor and partnership pitches into signed deals, building a multi-brand portfolio (Vuori, Adidas, On, Pruzan Running, Zappos, Essentia Water, and Drink Magna) from zero to 7 active partners in under two years
- Built quarterly business plans and account-specific pitch decks targeting key partner categories, directly translating into signed activations and recurring brand relationships
- Negotiated a revenue-share partnership model with Movement Society gym for a recurring 16-week marathon prep program, positioning RTB as the delivery engine
- Closed a recurring, multi-year On partnership spanning shoe demos, a marathon shakeout run, a mile time trial, and the 90+ runner Melting Miles relay, consistently deepening the account rather than chasing one-off deals

Dash Activate Online

Creative Strategist & Production Manager

2022 - 2023

- Drove daily cross-functional coordination with Media Buyers, Operations, and Account Management to review creative testing campaigns and deliver an exceptional client experience across accounts
- Analyzed creative testing data to diagnose what ads were converting and why, deconstructing winning creative and copy to extend high-performing campaign lifespan
- Partnered directly with store owners to brainstorm messaging strategy and content opportunities, consistently exceeding weekly KPI targets for tests generated and deployed

Los Angeles Football Club (LAFC)

Business & Data Strategy Assistant

2019 - 2020

- Leveraged Tableau, Salesforce, Service Console, and Kore CRM to deliver in-depth partner performance analytics, informing strategic decision-making across the partnerships team
- Collaborated cross-functionally to conceptualize and execute strategic partner activations, including social media campaigns and in-stadium fan experiences
- Directed strategic mapping of stadium signage placement, optimizing visibility for current and prospective partners
- Designed and deployed fan surveys assessing partner giveaways, marketing effectiveness, and stadium assets, distributed leaguewide after every match
- Engineered a dynamic Excel model quantifying partner impression value by event attendance, visualized through Tableau for executive-level partner reporting

Los Angeles Dodgers

League & Partnerships Associate

2016 - 2018

- Partnered directly with the LAD CMO on fundraising campaign strategy, including the Blue Diamond Gala, strengthening donor relationships and driving revenue-generating events
- Partnered in the planning and execution of Dodgers RBI youth sports programming and Dodger Day community festivals across LA-area parks
- Analyzed donor trends and participant engagement metrics, delivering data-backed insights that informed sponsor and fundraising strategy
